LOCATION: Wokingham, UK

BASE SALARY: £17k - £20k (dependant on experience)

START DATE: Immediate

HOURS OF WORK: 160 Hours/Month + Paid overtime

SUMMARY

Due to our expansion and strong client base, there is now a fantastic opportunity to expand our team. We are looking for a Junior Event Technician who will work together well with our existing team to help deliver some exciting production and event projects.

THE COMPANY

We are a live event production and equipment rental company who supply a wide range of production services to the live events industry across the UK and overseas. This is a fantastic opportunity to join our existing team, combining your practical knowledge and skills, within this 'one stop' event service for high profile corporate and private events.

THE ROLE

You will be working closely with the Project Managers and other Technicians to deliver the audio and visual production for a broad range of events. These often include outdoor lighting, staging, award ceremonies, and conferences for a range of well-known clients.

- Hands on preparation of equipment - audio, lighting, video & staging
- Install and de-rig equipment as directed by the on-site Manager Ensuring all equipment is kept clean and well presented
- General service, maintenance, and repair of equipment
- Loading / unloading of vans and trucks
- Equipment collections & deliveries
- Keep up to date with new or emerging techniques or equipment usages, including undertaking training

THE CANDIDATE

The successful candidate(s) must be able to work well in a team, be prepared to learn a broad knowledge of audio, lighting, and video equipment and have a flexible work ethic including working weekends. Due to our motor vehicle insurance, our ideal candidate(s) will be aged over 21 with a full UK driving licence, but not essential.

If you are looking to progress your career within this well-established company that can offer a great working environment, fantastic training opportunities and career progression then apply now!
